

© 2011 by Wayne Jacobsen though permission is hereby granted to make copies of these discoveries for free distribution, or for a modesty copying cost.

Session 1

The Starting Point

1. Inspiration - book as a whole 2 Tim 3:16-17
2. Confirmation:
 - A. Forming the Canon
 1. Early church fathers quoted often from New Testament books (90-170 AD)
 2. The Beginning Assimilations
 - a. Muratorian Canon - Mark, Luke, John, 13 letters of Paul, 2 of John, Jude, Revelation (c. 170)
 - b. After 200 AD, most New Testament books easily referred to as Scripture. Those not universally accepted: Hebrews, James, 2 Peter, 2 and 3 John, Jude
 - c. By 300, Hebrews gains acceptance (Eusebus)
 - d. By 360, Athanasius of Alexandria cites all 27
 - e. Third Council at Charthage (397), all 27 received a
 3. Standards by which authenticity were judged
 - a. Apostolic origin
 - b. How it was received by the original churches
 - c. Consistency of doctrine
 - B. Others:
 1. Martin Luther relegated 4 books to secondary status: Hebrews, James, Jude and Revelation.
 2. Calvin ignored 2 and 3 John and Revelation
 - C. Evangelicalism's creedal statement
 - D. Why I accept the existing text?
 1. Test of time – no other writings have emerged with the same weight
 2. Internal consistency – no big issues arise.
 3. Bears witness in relationship (God who is knowable)
3. Dictated By God, or uniquely inspired writers?
 - A. Fig tree narratives
 - B. Resurrection accounts
 - C. Cleansing the temple – beginning or end, once or twice?

Session 2

Who is God Really?

1. God's Character & the Clash of the Testaments
 - A. OT: Master/slave, offended, angry deity. Curses and punishes with violent interaction, whose name cannot even be mentioned.
 - B. NT: friend to friend (John 15:15), bride to bridegroom, Abba to children (Romans 8:15)
 - C. What is substantive and what is perception?
2. Something changes between the Testaments
 - A. Sodom and Gomorrah vs. James and John wanting to call down fire
 - B. "Stone the Adulterer" to John 8 forgiveness & empowerment
 - C. To Fear or Not to Fear
 - D. The New Testament Fear Factor (PP) – Why the need? Why is it easier to believe
3. Could it be our perception of God changing, not God himself?
 - A. OT Focus on Love
 1. "The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love." Psalm and numerous other places.
 2. "Do not be afraid" Almost every time God makes himself known
 3. Deuteronomy 6 – the previously greatest command: Love God and love others
 4. Lovingkindness (184 x in NAS)
 5. Look up the use of love
 6. Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "I will be your God you will be my people." Lamentations 3:22-23:
4. Holding in tension those seemingly contradictory portions of Scripture 2 Peter 3:16

Session 3

The Story of Redemption

1. The Scriptures are progressive revelation of God inviting people out of darkness into his light. Galatians 4:1-7
2. Revelational Flow in Scripture
 - A. Sacrifices & Offerings
 - B. Curses
 - C. Executing the Law
 - D. Naming God (unspoken) to Abba & Jesus (Yeshua)
3. Evidence of this story
 - A. You heard the ancients say this.... (Jesus)
 - B. Peter 1:10-12 (PP) longed to look, couldn't understand, even angels
 - C. Matthew 11:11 about John the Baptist
 - D. OT misconceptions overturned in the New
 1. God is responsible for everything that happens
 2. Foods are really unclean
 3. People's sin is the cause of their own pain (James 1, John 9, Tower of Siloam, Luke 13:4)

4. God as the author of lies, destruction, etc., instead of the rescuer.

4. The Story of Redemption

Adam Abraham Moses David Isaiah Nehemiah Jesus Paul

- A. God created a world for us to enjoy him
 - B. We chose a life apart from him and plunged the creation into darkness
 - C. God set himself to win us back to himself from our own sin and shame.
 - Reveals himself as loving.
 - Invites us to follow his ways.
 - Faithful even in our faithlessness.
 - Holds sin in check until until Redeemer comes
 - D. Incarnation – God appears in the creation to show us what he’s like and to redeem the broken world.
 - E. Believers explore that relationship and its resulting transformation
 - F. Hints of the end where the created order is restored in a new heaven and new earth, a pure, undefiled eternity.
5. The Problem of Proof texting Why proof-texting outside “the story” misleads
- A. No one thing true at the expense of all others to be true!
 - B. Interpret inside the story
 - C. Let Scripture say what Scripture says. Acts 17:11

Session 4

The Jesus Lens

- 1. Jesus as the fulfillment and its conclusion
 - A. Emmaus Rd – Luke 24
 - B. The Word made flesh – John 1
 - C. John 5:39-40 – the beacon to Jesus!
- 2. I want to know the Jesus of Scripture well enough so that anything that comes my way I can take to him. Three voices must line up for me to have confidence
 - A. The Jesus I’m growing to know
 - B. The Scriptures
 - C. My conversations with others, including the voice of past followers
- 3. A Plan to understand the Story of Scripture
 - A. Begin with Jesus inside a relationship → The Gospels
 - B. See how the early church worked it out → Acts and the Epistles
 - C. See how history leads to that conclusion → Old Testament

4. What do we need to interpret Scripture?
 - A. Be a lover of truth – God as he really is!
 - B. Intellectual honesty and curiosity
 - C. Inside a conversation with Jesus in you
 - D. Maybe not all in one person but in the conversations that we have
5. Translations and Study Bibles

Session 5

The Word of God

1. What is the Word of God, a book or a person? book or a person?
John 14:6 The Way, Truth and Life.
2. How is it used in Scripture
 - A. A proclamation straight from him
 - B. Jesus the person
 - C. The gospel message
3. Calling the Bible the “Word of God” substituted a book and its principles for a relationship with Jesus
 - A. Follow the rules became more important than following him
 - B. The academics became the arbiters of truth, when they couldn’t recognize Jesus if he sat right in front of them. Following principles or following him!
 - C. Distorts so many passages
 1. Acts: “Teaching/preaching the Word”, “the word of God spread”, etc.
 2. 2 Cor. 4:2
 3. Hebrews 4:12

Session 6

Beginning at the End — The Gospels

1. The crowning climax of the story. We start at the ending.
 - A. The apostolic foundation for life in Christ
 - B. The Revelation of Jesus –
 1. Acts 3 Peter’s sermon at Pentecost
 2. Acts 10 Peter’ sermon at Cornelius’ house

Interpretive Key: Parables

1. Purpose: To demonstrate the radical changes of the kingdom, by very specific attachment to illustrations in this age. Matthew 13:10-17 Why do you teach us in parables?
 - A. To conceal truth from those who did not want it, external relationship with teaching, but not internal
 - B. To reveal to those who want to know the mysteries of the kingdom
2. What are they? Stories with a meaning or point
3. Interpreting
 - A. One chief point of comparison
 - a. Luke 11:5-13
 - b. Exception The wheat and tares
 - B. Understand the earthly details as well as the original hearers
 - C. Context: Who addressed and what is happening? (Luke 15)
 - D. Conclusion statement, if given
4. How does this point relate to the reign of God in his kingdom?
Widow in Luke 18 – not God’s character, but our need to persevere

The Gospel According to Mark

1. Background
 - A. Author and Recipients
 1. Probably the first gospel written--a quick overview of Jesus life, not including near as much detail as the other gospel writers.
 2. Most likely reflects Peter’s preaching about the life of Jesus, given their close relationship, the perspective of this gospel, and their association in Rome about the time it was written.
 3. Writing to non Jewish people.
 - B. Date of writing – After Peter’s death in Rome about 65 AD
2. Theme: The Son of God (Mark 10:45)
3. Characteristics
 - A. Overview at a brisk pace
 - B. Point of view – narrator who explains everything
 - C. Significant conflict with demons, Jewish leaders, disciples and how Jesus prevails
 - D. Jesus praying in early morning or night time.

The Gospels Continued

The Gospel According to Matthew

1. Background
 - A. Author and Recipients - Matthew, tax-gatherer, with Jewish readers in mind
 - B. Date of writing – AD 50 – AD 115
2. Theme: Demonstrating Jesus to be the Messiah
 - A. Quotes from Old Testament 53 times, from 19 different books; alludes to Old Testament, 67 times from 25 different books
 - B. Uses “that it might be Fulfilled,” 13 times
3. Characteristics
 - A. Major Teachings
 1. Sermon on the Mount (5-7)
 2. Ministry Charge to the Disciples (10)
 3. Kingdom Parables (13)
 4. Church and Discipleship (16, 18)
 5. The Second Coming (24 – 25)
 - B. Uses the term ‘kingdom’ 54 times in the gospel

The Gospel According to John

1. Background
 - A. Author and Recipients – From the beginning – John, “the one who leaned on Jesus’ chest.”
 - B. Date – Late 1st century – uniqueness – Lazarus, water to wine, Nicodemus
2. Theme: Jesus is the Son of God – Deity emphasized
 - A. Purpose stated in John 20:30-31, so that others might believe.
 - B. The person of Christ, belief or unbelief, the result of death or eternal life depending on how one responded to him.
 - C. Father and Son emphasized
3. Major Characteristics
 - A. Intensely personal gospel, reflecting the relationship he had with Jesus.
 - B. Gives evidences of the deity of Christ – his preexistence with God, his claims in the “I am” proclamations and the seven “sign” miracles.
 - C. Most interpretive gospel, arranged theologically, not chronologically
 - D. Frequently used words: bread, water, love, life, light, truth
 - E. Very simple, but intensely profound – lots of symbolism and double meanings

4. Outline and Contents: Mix of Story and Teaching

Story	Teaching	Theme
First disciples First miracle (1:19 – 2:25)	Nicodemus Testimony of John the Baptist Samaritan Woman (3:1-4:42)	Believe & Live
Nobleman's son, paralytic (4:43-5:18)	Teaching in Jerusalem (5:19-47)	Hear & Live
Feeding 5,000 Walking on water (6:1-21)	Teaching in Capernaum (6:22-71)	Eat & Live
Festival of Tabernacles (7:1-13)	Teaching and Dialogue (7:14-8:59)	Look & Live
Blind Man Chapter 9	Teaching on the Good Shepherd Chapter 10	Follow & Live
Lazarus Plot against Jesus Anointing of Jesus Triumphal Entry (11:1-12:19)	Teaching on the grain of wheat (12:20-50)	Die & Live
Crucifixion, Burial, Resurrection (Chapters 18-20)	Farewell Teaching Upper Room Jesus' prayer (Chapters 13-17)	Receive Spirit and live
Fishing (21:1-14)	Conversation with Peter (21:15-25)	Serve & Live

The Gospel According to Luke

1. Background

A. Author and Recipients

1. To show the certainty of the events surrounding Jesus' life (1:1-4)
2. With Acts the largest contributor to the New Testament
3. First Christian historian – progressive narrative
4. Heavily influenced by Paul and travels. Put him in touch with others.
5. A Gentile, physician (Col. 4:14), medical terminology

B. Date – 70s, perhaps during Paul's imprisonment in Caesarea

2. Theme: Jesus the Son of Man – His Humanity

- A. How God equipped the Messiah – active role of the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38)
- B. Healer as well as deliverer
- C. An apologetic – to convince of the certainty of Christ's life

3. Major Characteristics

- A. Great attention to detail, verifying dates and facts by Roman governors
- B. Great attention given to homier details
- C. Emphasis on Jesus' prayer
- D. Prominent concepts
- E. Medical interest – how Jesus come to be conceived
- F. Significant time to birth and infancy

4. See Acts as a continuation of Luke